Project Manager

Kuala Lumpur Federal Territory of Kuala Lumpur Malaysia
1 to 2 years in the role, former employee

Awesome company culture

The good things

I learned a lot there. I learned how to be more assertive in my work, I am given enough space and opportunity to execute and definitely able to mingle and mix with a lot of insanely great and awesome people.

The challenges

Average age for Mindvalley employees are around 25 ish. If you are 29, you are already slightly ahead of the bell curve. The learning experiences are awesome, but to make a career there is another matter. The company encourage you to learn as much as you can for 2 years or more and then move on. Or Create your own gig with what you learned.

Mindvalley in a nutshell

The good things

Amazing multi-cultural people. Center of KL. Fun and cozy office.

The challenges

No hierarchy, you don't know how and when you get promoted. Chaotic and working in ad hoc way. No superior to watch over your work. If you did a mistake, you'll be screwed.
